

EXPLORING THE IMPLEMENTATION OF ONE PERSON ONE RECORD (OPOR) AT IWK HEALTH

Alannah Delahunty-Pike

PhD Health Student, Dalhousie University

RESEARCHER PROFILE

- PhD Health student at Dalhousie University
- Based in the Strengthening Transitions in Care Lab at IWK Health
- Keen interest in health equity, health systems, patient-oriented research, and digital health transformation

RESEARCH STUDY

- Will explore the implementation and roll-out of OPOR at IWK Health
- Impacts on patient flow
- Potential improvements in health equity and system access
- Sociodemographic and social history data collection

WOULD YOU LIKE TO JOIN MY TEAM?

- I am interested in working with Patient and Family Advisors
- Role as a team member to help inform the research objectives, data collection and analysis
- Attend 3-5 meetings per year
- No previous research experience necessary

If you are interested, please contact me:
adpike@dal.ca

